This form, which you should read carefully, has been provided to you because the University may request a consumer report and/or investigative consumer report, as those terms are defined by the Fair Credit Reporting Act, which governs also the procurement of background reports for employment purposes. The information sought will be limited to felony convictions, convictions of crimes involving sex offenses or misappropriation of funds, and a verification of highest degree earned and, if applicable for the appointment, current professional license or certification held. The information will be kept in strict confidence by HireRight and the University.

Although HireRight will not be doing a background check on your credit, the rules outlined in the Fair Credit Reporting Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1681g(a), also apply to criminal background checks and, upon your request, HireRight shall disclose to you a copy of the report in your file at the time of the request. Also on request, you can receive a copy of the "Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act" prepared pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1681g(c), and you have the right to request additional disclosures of the nature and scope of the investigation pursuant to a pre-adverse or adverse action by the University.
