

THE PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY
DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

As part of the final approval process of an appointment, the University verifies the receipt of academic degrees and credentials and conducts reference and background checking. The University also requires you to disclose in writing all relevant facts and information needed for a full and fair understanding of any of the following:

Professional misconduct or sanctions (e.g., debarment by a federal agency; any form of professional discipline or license restriction or surrender; an admission or determination that you have committed research misconduct);

Any harassment or discrimination you were found to have committed by any court, adjudicative body or administrative body, including but not limited to any findings of harassment or discrimination made by present or former employers;

Any felony convictions or convictions of other crimes involving sex offenses or misappropriation of funds.

Engagement in any such conduct may not, in and of itself, disqualify you for an appointment at the University. However, failure to disclose such information, or any misrepresentation made in connection with the disclosure, would be grounds to revoke an offer of appointment or terminate subsequent employment. Information is kept confidential and available on a need-to-know basis only.
